Course Description

Spanish II is a course designed to provide a continuation of language learning to students who have taken the introductory course of Spanish I. This course is developed to increase proficiency and communication skills that students need to successfully master the language. Students will be studying advanced vocabulary and grammatical concepts, including present and preterite tense which students will be expected to use using different modes of communication within situations studied.

Basic reading comprehension is developed and students hold simple conversations and write short compositions about present and past actions. In addition, students will study aspects of Hispanic culture and history via a variety of media. Fore more, students will broaden their cultural understanding of the 21 Spanish Speaking countries

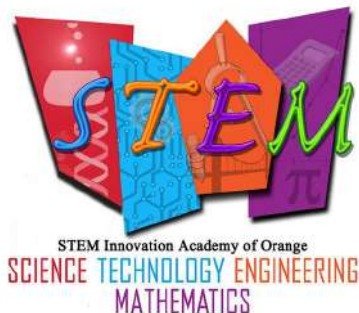

Instructor

James Larsen, B.A.

James Larsen received his B.A. in Spanish and Political Science from Rutgers University.

Teacher Availability:

I will be available during advisory hours Monday 1:00 - 2:20, Friday 9:40- 11:00 and during office hours Monday- Friday 3:30- 4:00 by appointment..

Grading Policy

- 10% Homework
- 20% Quizzes
- 20% Classwork
- 25% Tests
- 25% Authentic Assessments

Classwork:

Student participation is essential for language learning. Students are expected to engage in the 3 modes of communication (Interpretative, Interpersonal and Presentational) as outlined by the NJSLS; these modes include attentive listening, conversations, reading, writing and other tasks. All classwork is to be turned on the day given for full credit. Any work turned in after that will lose 5 points per day late.

Homework:

Homework will be posted on google classroom and is to be turned in as instructed. Any late assignments will lose 5 points per day late.

Quizzes:

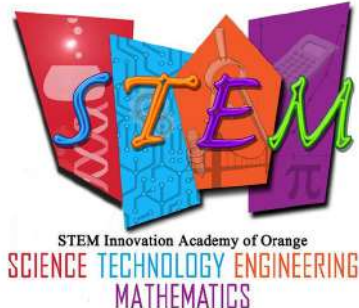

Quizzes will be given at the end of each lesson to evaluate student's growth and areas where growth may be needed. Quizzes will make up 20% of the grade.

Tests:

Tests will be administered at the end of each unit and have a weight of 25% of the grade.

Classroom Rules of Conduct: (To be followed along with all procedures and policies outlined in the STEM student handbook)

1. Be prepared:

- Bring the following to class on a daily basis: paper/writing utensil(s), assignments
 - Homework Folder, and your notebook.
 - Keep a notebook containing complete notes of material developed in class. I can and may collect notebooks at any time and possibly count them as an additional grade.
 - Have homework completed.
 - Attendance - Be in your seat when class begins and remain in your seat until the bell sounds at the ending of the class. The STEM Academy Tardy Policy will be observed.
2. Be courteous:
- Avoid loud, unnecessary talking or noise making.
 - Raise your hand for permission to speak or to leave your seat.
3. Be a proactive class member:
- Follow all directions the first time given.
 - Maintain a clean, safe classroom environment
 - Food, candy, drinks, and grooming are NOT permitted. Water is permitted.
 - Electronic devices (including cell phones) should be turned off and put away.
4. Be cooperative and respectful.
- Respect yourself, respect your classmates, and respect your teacher.
 - Respect your classmates' right to learn and my right to teach.
 - Work together to succeed: It is not the right of an individual to take away from the educational time of others.
 - Cultivate a positive attitude that supports your own learning, as well as that of others.
5. Be Honest
- Do your own work—do not copy assignments or answers (using an online translator does count as plagiarizing and work will receive a grade of zero)
 - Do not allow others to copy your work or you will have to share your grade.
 - Be truthful about reasons for missing assignments, tests, etc.
 - Follow the STEM Academy Student Handbook policy on Academic Dishonesty.

Remember, attitude is everything!

Classroom courtesy:
