The School Board of the School District of Spring Valley has adopted the Wisconsin Model Academic Standards for mathematics and English language arts. In addition, the Board has adopted the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) and the Wisconsin Science Standards (WSS). Curriculum is determined locally to meet all adopted standards.

Spring Valley School District offers a wide range of special education programs:

- Starting with Early Childhood education programming for students who are at least 3 years old but not school age,
- Special education for students with disabilities,
- English Language Learners,
- Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs,
- At Risk programs for students that are in danger of not graduating high school,
- Summer School programming.

Education options for students who are enrolled in the Spring Valley School District that involve part-time attendance at an educational institution other than a school in the Spring Valley School District includes the following:

- Start College Now Program - provides opportunities for students enrolled in 10th grade or higher to apply for approval to take courses at another educational institution; it is subject to state and local eligibility requirements, including the limitation that the courses must satisfy a high school graduation requirement; and includes certain District approved dual credit opportunities that the District offers in conjunction with a partner institution of higher education.
- Early College Credit Program - provides opportunities for students enrolled in 9th grade or higher to apply for approval to take courses at certain institutions of higher education.

Additional educational options for students who reside in the district that involve full time enrollment/attendance at a school, program, or other educational institution that is not a school or instrumentality of the Spring Valley School District includes the following:

- High School students meeting certain age and other eligibility requirements may be permitted to attend a technical college or certain other programs for the purpose of completing a program leading to the student's high school graduation or to high school equivalency diploma.
- Full time open enrollment involves physical attendance in a public school of a non resident school district or attendance through virtual charter school that is associated with a non-resident school district.
- A student with a disability who meets the program's specific eligibility requirements may apply to attend an eligible, participating private school under a scholarship awarded through the state's "Special Needs Scholarship Program", as established under section 115.7915 of the state statutes. Adopted: 2016-2017 school year.
- Enrollment in a private school of the family's choosing (at the family's own cost, as applicable).
- Enrollment in a home-based private educational program as provided under state law.

Educational options for students who reside in the Spring Valley School District but are attending a private school or home-based private educational program include the following:

- The opportunity to attend summer school classes/programs offered in the district,
- The opportunity to apply for approval to take up to two courses per semester in the Spring Valley School District pursuant to section 118.145(4) of the state statutes.
- The opportunity to participate in District Interscholastic athletics and other district extracurricular activities pursuant to section 118.133 of the state statutes, and meets the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association (WIAA) eligibility rules for students in high school grades.

Education of homeless children and youths:

Children of homeless individuals and unaccompanied homeless youth (youth not in physical custody of parent/guardian) residing in the School District of Spring Valley shall have equal access to the same free, appropriate public education as provided to other children and youths that reside in the School District of Spring Valley. They shall be provided services comparable to services offered other children attending School District of Spring Valley, including transportation services, educational services for which the children/youths meet eligibility criteria (e.g., special education, Title I programming), vocational and technical education programs, and school nutrition programs.

For more information about any of the educational options available listed in this notice, please contact the Spring Valley School District office or the WI Department of Public Instruction.
