

“Strut Your Stuff and Style”

Art Contest & Sale

All students attending Hope Middle School are invited to participate in an art competition and sale that will showcase your “awesome” skills while supporting the Destined D.I.V.A.S. and Men of Purpose at the same time!

CALL FOR ENTRIES!!!

- The exhibition is open to all Hope Middle School Students.
- Any media and subject matter is eligible. (No vulgarity, violence or sexual topics)
- Entries must be of the artist's original design completed in the last two years and not a result of a class assignment.

*Entries will be judged by the Pitt County Arts Council and ribbons/certificates will be awarded. All entries will be then placed in our silent auction.
(Entries become the property of the competition and sale.)*

Drop off your work to be juried by March 24th to Mrs. VanHook's room.

Entry Categories that will be judged:

Painting- Oil, acrylic, gouache, watercolor etc.

Drawing- Pen and ink, charcoal, pencil, etc.

Sculpture- plaster, clay, paper mache, must be 3-D

Mixed Media- two or more mediums in one piece

Photography- Nature, People/Portrait, animal, Landscapes etc.

Artistically Presented Poetry - Poetry with an art design or photo

ALL FUNDS RAISED WILL GO TO THE D.I.V.A.S. AND MEN OF PURPOSE MENTORSHIP PROGRAMS.

See Mrs. VanHook, Mrs. Z. Jones, Ms. Wisonia Hopkins or Ms. Elks for more information.