Definitions of Absences

CUMULATIVE ABSENCES A maximum of seven (7) days per school year are allowed as per the PA State School Code. After the allotted seven (7) days, a doctor's note is required. Failure to follow this code could result in prosecution.

Excused Absences

- A parent note for illness
- A pre-approved vacation or pre-approved special event.

Unlawful Absences

- All absences are considered unlawful until a written excuse is received in the office. Three (3) unlawful absences could result in prosecution as per PA State School Code.
- Any day for which a written excuse is not submitted within three (3) school days of the student's return from an absence, including notes from physicians.
- Any absence not excused by a physician's note after the 7 cumulative absences

NONCUMULATIVE ABSENCES Noncumulative absences are not counted against the seven (7) days permitted for parental excuses.

- Suspension from school
- Religious holidays
- Illness verified by a physician's note
- Documented Court Appearance
- Bereavement
