

Students of the Month - January

Seniors

Liam Crafton Whether it's finding the little things that need to be done in a robotics meeting or tutoring a fellow student in the finer points of physics and math, Liam does an outstanding job. He is compassionate, helpful and hardworking. -Mr. Andresen	Katherine Feroli Katherine is an incredibly dedicated language learner. This is evidenced by the fact that she is studying both AP French and Spanish. Time and again, Mrs. Ross and I impressed by the way she continues to excel in her learning. What a pleasure it has been to see her love for language and culture grow, as well as her proficiency in two world languages! She is respectful, kind and always has a willing attitude. -Mrs. Larwin

Juniors

Elgin Thompson Elgin is a dedicated student and meets all expectations with energy and commitment. He exemplifies the trait of personal integrity, always giving his best in every situation. Elgin is flexible and shows resiliency in his approach to learning. He is tenacious, a great leader, and a terrific friend. -Mrs. Evans	America Salazar America will come help students in 7th period (math triage) on her own time. She is bilingual so she is able to help with math and interpret (if necessary). She is always positive and willing to reach out to any student to see if they need assistance. This is even more impressive as she is new to MVHS this year. -Mrs. Romero

Sophomores

Emmett Baumgarte Emmett is not afraid to challenge himself. He works extremely hard inside of class and out. Chinese is a difficult language and can be very difficult. He never misses class and always asks for help if needed. He is deserving to be recognized for his achievements and efforts in the classroom. -Mrs. Wu	Ireland Moews Ireland makes teaching fun. She is constantly engaged in the material, smiles consistently, and challenges herself all the time. -Mr. Crum Ireland is an outstanding member of our math community. Ireland comes prepared every day with her homework completed. She even attempts the most difficult problems each day. Ireland is also a very active member of each group in math class. She works with all the people in her group willingly and helps others to learn the math as well. She has great focus and keeps her group discussions going with thoughtful responses to each prompt. -Mrs. Hutchison

Freshman

Brendan Galanaugh Brendan is the first student to arrive in my classroom every day. He is never a disruption and always supports other students in many ways. He is gifted at Chinese and is a pleasure to be around. -Mrs. Wu	Zoe Waltosz Zoe has such a positive attitude in and out of class. She is a high achiever in terms of academics and is a model student athlete. She was able to navigate through volleyball season while balancing her full academic schedule due to hard work and perseverance. She is proactive in seeking help when needed and has a great relationship with her peers, teachers, and coaches. She goes the extra mile to be kind in all she does. Zoe is a pleasure to have in class and I am grateful to have her as a part of the Cougar community! -Mrs. Mottern
