

A Complimentary Student Solutions Webinar Series

COVID-19: It's a New Era. Legal Considerations for Our Special Populations

Hear from a team of experienced school law professionals from Thompson & Horton LLP as they discuss legal considerations for our most vulnerable students during this unprecedented pandemic, including students with disabilities, English learners, homeless, gifted and talented, military families, and pregnant students. School board and SBEC CEUs will be awarded! Continuing Legal Education credit approval is pending.

All webinars are 2-3 p.m. CST.

May 13

It's A New Day: Hard ARDs, Difficult 504 Meetings, and Other Communications to Parents During and After COVID-19

May 20

It's A New World: Special Education and Section 504 Services During and After COVID-19

May 27

It's A New Way: Addressing Special Program Students During and After COVID-19

June 3

It's A New Path: Child Find and Evaluations During and After COVID-19

Register today!

School district personnel can register for free at tasb.org/services/student-solutions/covid-19-webinar-series.

Hosted by

Student Solutions

Presented by

