

Studio Practice/Participation

Grade Rubric

The following is used to determine either your weekly or monthly (depending on the class) studio practice and participation grade in art. It is important to remember the expectations “As A.R.T.I.S.T.S we will.... Arrive on time and ready for class (pencil, binders). Respect (each other, ourselves, the room, materials, and tools by proper use and cleaning up). Try your best. Inspire each other and use your imagination. Safely use tools and materials. Technology can be used for research and music on studio days. Stay on task.

	4 Exceeds	3 Meets	2 Partially Meets	1 Does Not Meet	Your Score:
Preparation Organization	Always on time, prepared, and ready to work.	Rarely but sometimes (one time or more) late or unprepared for class.	Occasionally late or unprepared for class	Unprepared or late for class daily.
Interpersonal Skills	Respectful to everyone. Gives excellent feedback to peers.	Respectful to others. Interacts mainly within table group.	Little interaction with others even during critiques.	Disrespectful to classmates or adults in the room.
Materials and tools	Always uses tools/materials as directed.	Generally uses tools as directed, in a way that is safe.	Sometimes uses tools/materials in a way other than directed.	Uses tools and materials in a way that is unsafe or not as directed
Technology	Only uses technology at appropriate times for research and music only.	Uses technology at appropriate times for research and music only.	Has been asked to put phone away on occasion	Misuse of technology (inappropriate use of phone).
Work Ethic	Extremely involved in work. May spend extra time outside of class if necessary.	Usually on task and focused.	Often distracted or disengaged.	Frequently off task.

Total Grade (Average)=
