

Drawing Center

#stylechallenge

WHAT: The internet is full of challenges. The idea is simple: draw the same character multiple times in the styles of as many popular cartoons as possible.

Feeling up to the challenge? Get involved!

WHO: Artists interested in drawing cartoons, creating animations, illustrating books, or people who just like to draw!

WHY: #stylechallenge was started by a 17-year-old Instagrammer called beautifulness87. The London-based artist (real name Autumn Massaquoi) has almost 80,000 followers, and many of them have been sending her their #stylechallenge submissions and she then shows them on her Instagram page.

#stylechallenges inspires other artists, creates a sense of community, and helps create more characters.

From The Simpsons, Sonic The Hedgehog and Dragon Ball Z to the Powerpuff Girls and Family Guy, almost every popular cartoon and animated series you can think of has been reimaged in the various styles of different artists from around the world.

YOUR TURN: Create self-portraits in a variety of different drawing styles!

First, look in a mirror and create a self-portrait in your unique style. Then, create self-portraits in different styles!

Emma Kenny is super versatile!
She can draw in many different styles!

The blue circle behind this artists' work makes the drawings feel organized and unified.

This artist chose different poses, a way of arranging a body, when creating their different styled drawings!

Notice how this artist paid special attention to the different ways of creating noses!
