

Summary and Reflection

A summary (1 page) is an in-depth explanation of the article that stresses the main points of the topic. The summary should be written as though the person that is reading has never read the article before.

The reflection (1 page) is the reader's opinion on the specific aspects of the article. The reflection should be written about the different aspects of the article, not the article as a whole.