

REQUIRED SUMMER READING, GRADES 7-12.

The Book Revue in Huntington has been informed of our reading list and will be ordering additional copies to ensure sufficient inventory should you choose to purchase your book there.

6th graders going into English 7: Fever 1793 by Laurie Halse Anderson. Click here for accompanying written assignment.

7th graders going into English 8: Read one of the following books, all of which are the first title in a series.

- The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins
- The Uglies by Scott Westerfeld
- Among the Hidden (Shadow Children #1) by Margaret Peterson Haddix

8th graders going into English 9: Gentlehands by M.E. Kerr

9th graders going into English 10 Regents or English 10 Humanities Regents: Read either The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd or Peace Like a River by Leif Enger. Click here for accompanying written assignment.

9th graders going into English 10 Honors: Read either 1984 by George Orwell or Brave New World by Aldous Huxley. Click here for accompanying written assignment.

10th graders going into English 11 Regents or English 11 Humanities Regents: Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet by Jamie Ford. Students should expect an assessment on the novel in both Social Studies and English class within the first week of school.

10th graders going into English 11 Advanced Placement Language and Composition: The Things They Carried by Tim O'Brien and The Best American Essays 2010 by Christopher Hitchens, edited by Robert Atwan. Click here for accompanying written assignment.

11th graders going into English 12 Introduction to College English: Tuesdays with Morrie by Mitch Albom. Click here for accompanying written assignment.

11th graders going into English 12 Advanced Placement Literature and Composition: An American Tragedy by Theodore Dreiser. Click here for accompanying written assignment.