Content: Students enrolled in High School Choir may learn some of the Iowa All-State Chorus repertoire and other Honor Choir Festival literature. This repertoire includes choral works from Renaissance to 21st Century composers. Students will learn history, technique, interpretation, expression, blend, and basic music theory and music literacy skills.

Instructional Strategies: include group and individual lessons, vocal technique, vocal health, music history, and music-specific technology. Guest artists will visit, offering master classes and opportunities to explore further study in music and music careers.

Resources: printed choral music, printed vocal solo music, vocal health resources, e-portfolio development, various online music resources, community resources including University of Dubuque, Clarke University, Loras College, Wartburg College, Mt. Mercy University, St. Ambrose University, Northeast Iowa School of Music, and University of Wisconsin-Platteville partnerships.

Core Materials: The primary materials for this class are moderate to difficult choral music that is provided; printed materials on vocal production, vocal health, and vocal technique.

Concert Attire:

Blue choir robes, white stoles, and garment bags are provided. Students are responsible for the care of these items.

Students must supply solid black clothing from the waist down to be worn under robes, including:

- Black tights/leggings
- Dress pants
- Dress socks
- Solid black dress shoes, etc.
- T-shirts or dress shirts may be worn under robes.

Academic/Behavior Expectations: Students involved in performance organizations at Bellevue High School have a unique opportunity and responsibility. By the very nature of this class, students are ambassadors for Bellevue High School. They are expected, therefore, to behave in a responsible manner at all public performances. Any student behaving in a manner less than that of an ambassador will receive a no-credit for that performance. Students are expected to maintain a classroom of safety and inclusion. Failure to maintain a positive learning environment will result in meetings with counselors and guardians.

Attendance Policy: Students missing at least 30% of rehearsals – approximately 9 classes – will be tested on their knowledge of repertoire before they can perform. An alternative option will be given to earn the grade if a student is ill-prepared to perform due to truancy.

All students are expected to:

- Be on time for class; attend class daily
- Participate fully in class with a positive attitude
- Work as a supportive member of the team and respect others
- Attend and participate in choir lessons and all required performances/concerts
- Refrain from chewing gum, eating, drinking (other than water) and cell phone use. All cell phones are expected to be silenced and out of sight unless they are used for instructional purposes.

Electronic Devices: When used without permission, cell phone use during class is disruptive and disrespectful. We are an ensemble. This means that, in order to be successful, we need the full cooperation of each and every member of the ensemble. Keep cell phones out of sight. Tell your friends and parents phones will be off during class; that you want to fully engage in learning. There is an electronics policy discussed in your student handbook; please familiarize yourself with it. If you choose to disrespectfully use your phone during class, it will affect your grade via your points in Daily Rehearsal. Eventually, disciplinary action will occur. See Page 20 of the Student Handbook for more information on electronic devices.

Evaluation Criteria: A letter grade is earned each semester. Student grades are entered online in JMC, which is accessible to students and parents via the Internet. The following grading scale is used:

- A 90–100%
- B 80-89%
- C 70-79%
- D 60-69%
- F 0–59%

Grading Plan:

Students will be graded on daily work, performances, and oral and written assessments as follows:

- Daily Rehearsal (70%) – 5 points each day: student arrives on time; student participates daily in class activities and rehearsals; student has all classroom materials for every rehearsal (music and pencil); student attends assigned lessons; student behaves in a respectful manner. Points will be deducted for infractions of these expectations.
 - Choir Lessons – Lessons are offered during the school day. Students in extra choir events (Opus, All-State, festivals, etc.) will take frequent choir lessons.
- Summative and Formative Assessments (10%) - assessing musical writing and skills
- Concert Performances (20%) – student participates in the required concerts, 100 points each

Make-Up Work: In the event a student is absent for any reason, the student is expected to immediately contact the teacher to complete the missed work within a reasonable amount of time as determined by the teacher. Students enrolled in High School Choir are required to participate in all performances of the class. Students missing a performance will complete an alternate assignment to fulfill this curricular requirement. The student may perform the literature from the missed performance for the class or music department faculty. The faculty will use the IHSMA grading rubric.

Enrichment Opportunities: Enrichment opportunities are available to students who wish to work on more challenging vocal/choral music. These opportunities include, but are not limited to Opus, All-State Chorus, choral festivals, state contest, private and group voice lessons, participation in voice master classes, and the school musical. Mrs. Roe will assist students who are preparing college music scholarship auditions.

My Pledge to You: As your teacher, I promise to be diligent, respectful, organized, caring, and trustworthy. I promise you a music education in a safe and caring learning environment. It is my goal to equip you with the skills you need to be a successful learner. I will push and challenge you. I expect you to strive for excellence in everything you do.
