TV & Film II Instructor: Ms. Jessica Howard Sickler Semester Course

Course Description:

This is an intermediate course in digital filmmaking and TV production. In this course, students will refine their skills as a producer, director, and writer and be immersed into the field of TV production. They will be introduced to the field of Broadcast journalism and write, produce and edit a weekly news show broadcasted at the High School. In this course students will get a chance to assume every role within a studio setting including but not limited to, director, producer, anchor, cameraman, technical director, audio technician and teleprompter operator.

Students will work in groups and crews and collaborate on several projects throughout the year. Most projects will be geared to the field of broadcast journalism and students will spend most of their time inside the studio working with broadcasting equipment.

Students will also be responsible to film and edit school events and/or video productions. It will require after school hours, which will be counted as summative grades during the marking period. This course will refine the students writing, filmmaking, and editing skills and prepare them for their entry into Digital Filmmaking III.

Weekly & Monthly out-of-class screenings and/or filming is required and will be a major part of the grade for this course. **

Expected learner outcomes:

- The ability to work independently and collaboratively in a high-pressure creative environment.
- The ability to function as any position in a TV studio.
- The fundamentals of developing, producing and directing film and/or news broadcast.
- Sufficient mastery in research and interview techniques.
- An in-depth experience working with digital video cameras and sound recording equipment.
- Sufficient mastery of editing software and TV Studio hardware.

Required Supplies:

To ensure that you are able to succeed in this class, you are REQUIRED to have the following items in class each day:

- 2" or 2 1/2 " Three Ring Binder
- Filler Paper
- Folder Pockets
- Pen/Pencil
- Headphones
- 8-16 GB flash drive (optional, but suggested)

Course Requirement (As decided by teacher for the school year)

All students must be able to dedicate time outside of school hours. It is a requirement of this course that students film and edit school events after hours and or on weekends.

A monthly schedule will be compiled of all school events in which students may select the days they wish to film. Student MUST be able to dedicate at least 2 hours after school/on weekends once each marking period.

It is understood that students participate in extracurricular activities, and at times it may be difficult to complete the required hours, but again, it is a requirement of this course.

Assessments:

To provide students the ability to excel in this course, varying forms of assessments will be used to check student understanding. Some forms of assessments used in this class will include, but not limited to:

Formative Summative

Homework Assignments
Quizzes
Varying Handouts
Rough Draft Newscast Writing Assignments

Classroom Rules:

Come to class on time. Standing outside the door and rushing in after the bell has begun to ring will constitute a tardy. You must be INSIDE the door when it begins ringing to be counted on time. PLEASE SEE SCHOOL RULES FOR MORE INFORMATION

Bring required materials every day unless you are otherwise directed. This includes your binder, pen or pencil, or any other material I have asked you to bring in for the day. If you do not have the items needed for class, (your assigned text, binder, and pen or pencil).

Late assignments will be marked LATE at the top of the page. All late assignments will be reduced 10 points each day it is late. Homework has a maximum grade of 100 points, unless otherwise noted. Each day an assignment is late will reduce the max a student can earn by 10 point, not including any incorrect answers. Although homework will be accepted late, there is still a cut-off date for that homework to be submitted.

Do not eat candy or other food in class unless you have been given permission. School sponsored sales will be permitted during the last 5 minutes of class IF we are finished with the lesson and permission is granted. Be sure to ask first.

One person at a time leaves the room with the bathroom pass. You may not leave the room during the first and last 10 minutes of class. You must also sign in and out. The book is located next to the door. There is no exception to this rule.

Use polite speech and body language. Unkind teasing and impolite behavior is unacceptable and WILL NOT be tolerated. I wish you to show respect to both your fellow classmates and myself.

1st Offense	Warning
2nd Offense	Referral

Do not vandalize school property. Do not write on or carve on any desk or any other property on school grounds or mishandle video equipment. The student will pay for any damage caused by a student to school property.

Grading:

70%	Summative Assessments
30%	Formative Assessments (included
	Homework)

Grading Scale:

Α	В	С	D	F
92-100%	91-84%	83-77%	76-70%	69 and Below

If for some reason these rules are unable to maintain a healthy learning environment, these rules can and will be changed. If a student continually violates these rules, further actions will be needed to improve the disruptive behavior of that student. It is my objective to handle most disruptive situations in-class, but if I must, I will seek help from parents, guidance counselors, and administrators.
