TARGET® Shop a Book Event

It's time for a Target Run!

Today we are shopping around to TARGET a book to read in the Realistic Fiction genre. You will take a turn browsing each aisle, reviewing the selection of books in that aisle, and by the end of the shopping trip, you will identify your top choices of books. Complete your shopping list for at least one book per aisle. Once you've reviewed the books in your aisle, you will have time to discuss the books you browsed with others in your aisle.
