DOMAIN 1: PURPOSEFUL DESIGNING

Teachers use Indiana Academic Standards and Common Core State Standards to develop a rigorous curriculum relevant and differentiated for all students: designing meaningful units of study, continuous assessments, and a system for tracking student progress as well as plans for accommodations and changes in response to a lack of student progress.

-CIC
-AIMSweb -CogAt
-Fountas & Pinnell
-Fast ForWord/Reading Assistant
-Star Reader
-Performance-based assessments -LAS Links
-Exit Slip
-Classroom Performance/Observation
1.2: Set Ambitious and Measurable Achievement Goals
Examples of Student/Class Achievement Goals:
-Student will reach an individual Growth Target RIT score of on NWEA reading, math, and/or language scoreStudents in my class will sustain a national ranking of 90 th percentile or greater for meeting growth projections in NWEA reading, math, and language.
-80% of the students in the class will score a 3 or greater on the course AP exam
-90% of students will get Common Instructional Check problem #1 correct
-Goals, if at all possible, should be tied to school (PL221) goals and/or district strategic plan (These student/class achievement goals are similar to the goals established when using the previous Performance Review Evaluation Process)

1.3: Develop Standards-Based Unit Plans and Assessments

Unit Plans: Series of lesson plans (may include multiple content areas) that are connected and cover a scope and sequence of learning progression

Formative Assessment: One of a range of formal and informal assessment procedures employed during the learning process in order to modify instruction, lessons, and learning activities to improve student learning.

Summative Assessment: Refers to the assessment of learning that summarizes the development of learners at a particular time (after a period of work, e.g. a unit for two weeks, one month, etc.). The assessment aims to summarize learning up to that point. (Ex. Mid-term test, Trimester final test)

Examples of Standards:

- -Curriculum Maps
- -IN Academic Standards/Common Core
- -WWS Essential Standards
- -ACP/AP Standards

1.4: Create Objective-Driven Lesson Plans and Assessments
