

Hip Hop or Shakespeare?

For questions 1-6, indicate whether you think the line is Shakespeare or hip hop. When Akala reveals the answer, write it down.

1. "To destroy the beauty from which one came."
2. "Maybe it's hatred I spew, maybe it's food for the spirit."
3. "Men would rather use their broken weapons than their bare hands."
4. "I was not born under a rhyming planet."
5. "The most benevolent king communicates through your dreams."
6. "Socrates, philosophies, and hypotheses can't define me."
7. What surprising information does Akala share about Shakespeare?
8. What does the term hip hop mean?
9. What are the 5 elements of hip hop?
10. What does the phrase "custodian of knowledge" mean?
11. How does Akala relate Shakespeare and hip hop to the future of education?
12. Why compare Shakespeare and hip hop?