

TEST REVIEW

What genre is this novel, besides historical fiction?

A) Science fiction

B) Biography

C) Nonfiction

D) Fable

What genre is this novel,
besides historical fiction?

A) Science fiction

B) Biography

C) Nonfiction

D) Fable

Who is Elsa?

- A) Maid
- B) Gretel's friend
- C) Mother
- D) Prisoner / Jew

Who is Elsa?

A) Maid

B) Gretel's friend

C) Mother

D) Prisoner / Jew

Story Map Review

Which letter represents the
CLIMAX?

Which letter represents the
CLIMAX?

Which letter represents the
EXPOSITION?

Which letter represents the
EXPOSITION?

Which letter represents the
RESOLUTION or CONCLUSION?

Which letter represents the
RESOLUTION or CONCLUSION?

After the story's conclusion, it is likely that Father_____.

- A) returns home
- B) regrets some of his actions
- C) is rewarded by the Fury
- D) blames Mother for Bruno's disappearance

After the story's conclusion, it is likely that Father_____.

A) returns home

B) regrets some of his actions

C) is rewarded by the Fury

D) blames Mother for Bruno's disappearance

What does infer mean?

Information or text that we read in the book or were given

Information that we already knew from before

At the end of the novel, the reader can infer that Bruno and Shmuel _____.

- A) are killed in a gas chamber
- B) march to the next town
- C) escape and run away
- D) disappear into darkness

At the end of the novel, the reader can infer that Bruno and Shmuel _____.

A) are killed in a gas chamber

B) march to the next town

C) escape and run away

D) disappear into darkness

John Boyne, the author, likely included Grandmother in the story to represent Germans who_____.

- A) cared most about power.
- B) cared most about family harmony and agreement; did what was right for the family
- C) followed what the government did and never questioned anything they did wrong
- D) followed their conscience; sense of things from right or wrong

John Boyne, the author, likely included Grandmother in the story to represent Germans who_____.

- A) cared most about power.
- B) cared most about family harmony and agreement; did what was right for the family
- C) followed what the government did and never questioned anything they did wrong
- D) followed their conscience; sense of things from right or wrong

Every time Mother sat down to make more plans for the party, Lt. Kotler was there beside her to help. He was always in the living room with Mother and making jokes with her, and Mother laughed at his jokes more than she laughed at Father's.

What can readers infer about the passage?

- A) Mother is content, happy with her life in Out-With.
- B) Mother cares about making Father's party special.
- C) Mother is involved in a relationship with Kotler.
- D) Mother disliked the company of Lt. Kotler at the new house.

What can readers infer about the passage?

- A) Mother is content, happy with her life in Out-With.
- B) Mother cares about making Father's party special.
- C) Mother is involved in a relationship with Kotler.
- D) Mother disliked the company of Lt. Kotler at the new house.