

The Devil in the White City
By Erik Larson

Reading Dates:

- #1: 11-47: January 7
- #2: 48-109: January 12
- #3: 113-182: January 16
- #4: 183-231: January 21
- #5: 235-273: January 26
- #6: 274-396: January 30

For each reading date:

Label each reading date's work by its number and bring to class on the selection's due date.

1. Write 1 (AP style) multiple choice question.
2. Write one FRQ prompt. Alternate between rhetorical analysis and argument. (You may need to select a cutting from the selection.)
3. Write five questions for discussion that show evidence of critical reading.
4. Write a 175-200 word critical analysis commentary on the selection that includes specific details.
5. Read closely, very closely. Prepare for a quiz on anything (including vocabulary words you don't know, historical facts, and allusions.)

The Devil in the White City
By Erik Larson

Reading Dates:

- #1: 11-47: January 7
- #2: 48-109: January 12
- #3: 113-182: January 16
- #4: 183-231: January 21
- #5: 235-273: January 26
- #6: 274-396: January 30

For each reading date:

Label each reading date's work by its number and bring to class on the selection's due date.

1. Write 1 (AP style) multiple choice question.
2. Write one FRQ prompt. Alternate between rhetorical analysis and argument. (You may need to select a cutting from the selection.)
3. Write five questions for discussion that show evidence of critical reading.
4. Write a 175-200 word critical analysis commentary on the selection that includes specific details.
5. Read closely, very closely. Prepare for a quiz on anything (including vocabulary words you don't know, historical facts, and allusions.)

The Devil in the White City
By Erik Larson

Reading Dates:

- #1: 11-47: January 7
- #2: 48-109: January 12
- #3: 113-182: January 16
- #4: 183-231: January 21
- #5: 235-273: January 26
- #6: 274-396: January 30

For each reading date:

Label each reading date's work by its number and bring to class on the selection's due date.

1. Write 1 (AP style) multiple choice question.
2. Write one FRQ prompt. Alternate between rhetorical analysis and argument. (You may need to select a cutting from the selection.)
3. Write five questions for discussion that show evidence of critical reading.
4. Write a 175-200 word critical analysis commentary on the selection that includes specific details.
5. Read closely, very closely. Prepare for a quiz on anything (including vocabulary words you don't know, historical facts, and allusions.)

The Devil in the White City
By Erik Larson

Reading Dates:

- #1: 11-47: January 7
- #2: 48-109: January 12
- #3: 113-182: January 16
- #4: 183-231: January 21
- #5: 235-273: January 26
- #6: 274-396: January 30

For each reading date:

Label each reading date's work by its number and bring to class on the selection's due date.

1. Write 1 (AP style) multiple choice question.
2. Write one FRQ prompt. Alternate between rhetorical analysis and argument. (You may need to select a cutting from the selection.)
3. Write five questions for discussion that show evidence of critical reading.
4. Write a 175-200 word critical analysis commentary on the selection that includes specific details.
5. Read closely, very closely.

Prepare for a quiz on anything!

--	--	--	--