

The Max and Susan Hendershott Scholarship

The Scholarship

In memory of Max & Susan Hendershott, the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) will be awarded each year to a graduating senior from Wellston High School who plans to further their experience in visual arts, musical arts, language arts or education (teaching) with a view to a possible career in one of these areas. Max taught art and mechanical drawing while Susan was a Latin and English teacher for the Wellston city schools, with their careers spanning several decades. This scholarship will be presented to the selected candidate to be used as he or she sees fit in furthering his or her education. The recipient will be selected on the criteria listed below. If no student qualifies under these rules the scholarship will not be awarded. The successful candidate will be required to show acceptance into an institution of higher learning before receiving the scholarship check in the amount of $1,000.

Criteria to be Used for the Selection of the Candidate

1. Ability, performance, and attitude in his or her chosen field.
2. Two written recommendations, one from a teacher in the applicant's field of study and the other from any teacher at Wellston High School
3. Character and Leadership
4. Activities and Attendance
