

Note from Shari Tarleton: When I first transferred to BJH seventeen years ago, I decided it would be a great idea to do a musical. With help from Lee K. Paige, we jumped into The Music Man. It has been an incredible experience performing this musical once again! I would like to thank so many people who have helped to make this performance possible. Mr. Ciembroniewicz, Hank Ramsey and the entire custodial staff at Coffin, Charlotte Stevens and Mary Caruso, Tracy Peck-Moad, and the Coffin staff welcomed us into Coffin Elementary with open arms. Kate Andreu once again added her amazing choreography skills. My friend Sheri Nadell—mom of the first Harold Hill and Marcellus!—added her expertise to our costumes. Hank, Paul Nadell, and Jai Westcott worked on lights that did not seem to have an on switch but really did! Jud Caswell once again calibrated all of our sound. Our music boosters produce the play, and without their financial support, we would not have a musical, sets, costumes, or choreography and costume support. My colleague Heidi Anderson supports me in so many ways with ideas and manages details to keep BJH music activities running smoothly. And my husband, Bryan, has eternal patience with all of my ideas that I “think” might work for sets and my endless hours away from home. Kristi Hatrick does a fantastic job with our PR, and Holly Moirs put together our program. Helen Walters was a visiting alum who added her expertise as well.

But none of this would be possible without an amazing group of junior high students who are passionate and talented. These students juggle academic success, athletics, other clubs and activities, dance and music lessons, other extracurricular music groups, community commitments—and this year, a severe bout of the flu. I love the point where I stop directing because they take over the show. This year, they have taken over in style and will steal your heart in their production of The Music Man.
