

The Personality Compass – at a glance

Everyone has some characteristics from each of the four types, but one will capture the essence of your personality more accurately than the others. That is your dominant type.

No one type is better than another, they're all just different.

Which type are you? Does one immediately jump out as fitting your personality?

If you're not sure which one you are, an easy way to find out is to pick which type is LEAST like you. Find the one that has characteristics that:

- you don't like
- you tend to avoid
- makes you feel uncomfortable
- you don't do well
- you don't enjoy

Find it? Now look across the compass to the opposite side and that is your dominant type.

My dominant type is: _____

The Personality Compass Dominant – Subdominant Type

Now see what the compass has to say about you based on your Dominant type combined with your Subdominant type.

Your Dominant type is the one listed first, your Subdominant is the second.

So, even two people who are both primarily NORTH, can still be very different if they have opposite subdominant types: WEST versus EAST.

Does your combined type seem to even more closely describe you than just your Dominant type?

Differences are Valuable

Each type is different. Each has different preferences, different strengths, different weaknesses, and different points of view. At times those differences can create difficulties and clashes, but if we understand the differences we can find ways to work together and that can become a great strength!

Understanding differences:

...In Image

NORTHS reflect Achievement

EASTS reflect Compassion

SOUTHS reflect Compassion

WESTS reflect Originality

...In Attitudes

NORTHS call a spade a spade

EASTS call a spade by its precise scientific name

SOUTHS call a spade whatever it wants to be called

WESTS don't want to limit a spade by assigning a name to it

...In Priorities

NORTHS – Goals

EASTS – Facts

SOUTHS – Values

WESTS – Methods

A perception is what we think about something. A perception can seem very true for you based on your preferences and that's ok. Just remember that someone else's perception can be very different, and that's ok too.
