High School Student of the Week: Jada Lambert

"I am a high school cheerleader, band member, basketball manager, and I'm part of the girl's powerlifting team. I'm the oldest of all my siblings and more than likely the favorite too! I'm going to try to do track this year, and I'm trying to become a straight A student, but it's a working progress. I love to ride around in my car and clean it when I can. I'm very busy and trying to focus on God and make my walk with God stronger! I love supporting my friends and family with their dreams and goals and I love watching and being involved in anything that is competitive."
