Teacher of the week

Mrs Nance

Ever since Mrs. Nance was a kid, she played school, and she realized that it is what she wanted to be when she got older. Her favorite part about teaching is building a relationship with her classes; she loves getting to know all her students and when her past students come to see her and update her on their lives. Most of the time she will have music playing in her classroom. “It gives the classroom a not so sterile feel.” She likes to have students work together to solve problems. She graduated from “good ol’ Ethel High School” and she graduated college from Mississippi State. She has been teaching for a total of 10 years. We love you Mrs.Nance and thank you for everything!!

Catching Someone Being Kind

Jada Lambert

1. What inspired you to always be kind to everyone? I feel like everyone should show kindness because you never know what's going on in someone's life and their situation that they're going through. Being kind to others is always a great feeling to yourself and others too.
2. What made you love everyone around you like you do? I love everyone like I do because everyone is unique in their own ways, others might see them as annoying or different, but if we're all the same then that would be boring.
3. Who is your role model to be kind? I would say God is my biggest role model, his love is everlasting. I want to be like how he tells us we should be.
4. What encourages you to have a better day? Knowing that I woke up that day and to cherish everyday like it's my last makes my day better. Being able to spread his word and show others kindness goes a long way.
5. What's your motivation? God says in Matthew chapter 7 verse 12: "So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Laws and the Prophets." This is the motivation that I use because everyone deserves kindness and love from others. That's what everyone struggles with, thinking they're better than someone else when they aren't. God says for us not to judge for we will be judged harder when that time comes.
