Root Causes of Poor Student Achievement

- Teacher Content Knowledge/Depth of Knowledge of Standards
- Best Practices that Engage Students
- Accountability of preparation and delivery of instructional practices
- Trainings on new initiative.
- New teacher support

Staff Next Steps

Our students have not been as successful academically as we believe they can be. Our staff continues to express concern over improving low test scores. Strategies learned in staff development are being implemented to reach each child's unique learning style. Small groups are being formed in and outside the classroom to help improve math and reading skills. Mastery Connect data is used to reteach for mastery. A continued effort is being made to strengthen parents' involvement in their children's learning process. Goal setting by the students themselves to improve test scores is intended to give ownership of achievement to the students.

Our staff believes that improved achievement can result from several approaches, including:

1. Implementing strategies based on data, i.e. Small Group Instruction
2. Follow the Greenville County Schools Instructional Protocol
3. Using Mastery Connect/common assessments/benchmarks to monitor gains in student achievement
4. Making sure all staff are trained to implement the areas of focus
5. Continue to increase classroom libraries with a variety of levels and genres
6. Modeling of instructional strategies
7. Teacher collaboration with other specialty areas
8. Implementing peer-observation opportunities to go in other classrooms
9. Observing other successful schools/programs similar to the make-up of Thomas E. Kerns
10. Unifying teaching strategies through common grade level planning time
11. Implementing vertical grade level planning throughout the year
12. Growing in the implementation of professional learning communities (PLC)
13. Data team meetings
14. Monthly parenting workshop to address academic awareness and tips for support

Our school's next steps in ELA include the following:

- *The continuation of Fountas and Pinnell's model of Balanced Literacy for ELA instruction
- *Unit planning
- *RTI teachers work with at-risk kindergarten through fifth grade students
- *Implement the State Standards according to the district plan over the next few years
- *Continue to utilize technology/license in the teaching process (ex. Promethean Board, Chromebooks, Reading A to Z, IXL, Study Island, Flocabulary, etc.)
- *Use Mastery Connect data to group students according to needs
- *Increase classroom libraries with a variety of levels and genres
- *Implement Sheltered Instruction
- *Implement Project Read Instruction

Our school's next steps in mathematics include the following:

- *Implement the State Standards according to the district plan
- *Unit planning
- *Increase use of manipulatives to teach math concepts

- *Implement small group instruction to help students gain understanding through guided math
- *Continue to utilize technology/license in the teaching process (ex. Promethean Board, Chromebooks, IXL, Study Island, Math Reflex, etc.)
- *Use Mastery Connect data to group students according to needs

Our school's next steps in science include the following:

- *Make better use of the science kits provided by the district
- *Make materials readily available to consistently provide hands-on activities with our students
- *Continue to plan field trips which support science standards
- *Continue to integrate the arts with science standards
- *Use leveled readers that correlate with science and English language arts standards
- *Continue to utilize technology in the teaching process (ex. iPad, Promethean Board, Chrome books, etc.)

Strategies to Increase Student Learning

Teachers at Thomas E. Kerns Elementary School continue in their efforts to stay abreast of the latest methods of delivering instruction. Teachers have taken advantage of staff development opportunities that are offered in the school and district, in addition to attending conferences. We recognize that students learn in different ways. Teachers are expected to use a variety of instructional strategies to address the different learning styles of students. To the degree that time and budgets allow, we encourage all staff to be involved in staff development opportunities that will increase student learning. Of course, our highest priority is implementing the strategies related to our vision. At each grade level, teachers are encouraged to work together as a team. These teams strive to ensure that grade level standards are taught according to the district pacing guide. Teachers use data from multiply sources to make instructional decisions.

Student Support Systems

Recognizing that some students need support beyond that available in the classroom, our school has worked with the district to provide a variety of special services.

- We have two resource teachers who work with students with learning disabilities. One full-time and one part-time speech language pathologists also offer students speech services. These teachers work primarily in collaboration with classroom teachers, and sometimes pull out students to work on skills. We also have two multi-grade level teachers. These children are served with full time teachers and full-time assistants.
- When a teacher believes that a student has special needs that require attention, the student is referred to OnTrack. The purpose of the team is to try to match student needs with resources that are available through the school, district, or community.
- We have three reading interventionists, and one math interventionist who work with kindergarteners through fifth graders.
- ESOL teachers serve our students identified as having English as their second language to help them transition in to the English language. We have one full-time and one part-time ESOL teachers.

Summary of Progress

We have a clear path for increasing student achievement laid out before us. We are growing in knowledge of how to implement content and performance standards in our classrooms. Additional support in reading for low-achieving students, broadened hands-on learning in the classrooms, and small groups are continuing to be implemented. Unit planning has been demonstrated and encouraged in ELA and math. We are learning to effectively study our student achievement results along with our school processes.

Teacher and Administrator Quality

In the spring of 2018, the staff of Thomas E. Kerns Elementary School reiterated its vision to increase student achievement. From that vision, goals, objectives, and strategies were developed in the comprehensive school-wide improvement plan. Implementation of the improvement plan will help to bring an increase in achievement for our students.

Teacher retention
