

Unit 5 Test Review

1. What are the differences between qualifications for governor and president?
2. The information about the roles and powers of the president is listed in Article ____ of the ____ Constitution.
For governor, they are found in Article ____ of the ____ Constitution.
3. According to the ____ amendment, each president can only serve ____ terms in office. This is because _____ was elected to 4 terms.
4. Amendment ____ states that if the president dies, the _____ assumes the duties of president.
The next two in line are the _____ and the _____.
5. If the president is suspected of wrongdoing, he can be _____ by the _____.
The _____ would then be responsible for holding his trial.
6. The main job of the executive branch is to _____ laws.
7. Even though the vice-president is one of the president's closest advisers, according to Article I his only official role is to _____. (Hint: What is Article I about?)
8. The most important goal of foreign policy is to ensure _____.
9. An attempt of one country to hurt another country's economy by ending trade is known as a _____.
When several countries end trade, this is known as an _____.
10. _____ is the money, supplies, and assistance given to foreign nations in need.
11. The country's overall plan for dealing with other nations is known as _____.
12. The president deals with foreign policy in his role as _____.
13. To show peace, a president may issue forgiveness to a large group of people, known as _____.
14. As a party of his role as legislative leader, the president issues a speech each year known as the _____.

DIRECTIONS: For each of the following, tell which role the executive is fulfilling. (Some may have two.)

15. Helping a fellow Democrat run for governor of California.
16. Nominating a new Secretary of State.
17. Hosting a formal White House dinner to welcome the Queen of England.
18. President Ford pardoned Richard Nixon for his part in a scandal.
19. The President chooses to bomb a city instead of sending in an attack on land that would have cost thousands of lives.
20. In an attempt to create free trade, the President negotiates a business treaty with Mexico and Canada.

21. What is federalism and how do we see it in the executive branch?

22. What effect does the War Powers Resolution have?

23. Explain the bureaucracy. What is the purpose of the Department of State? Treasury? Homeland Security? Defense?

24. How do the DEA, IRS, CIA, and FBI help enforce laws?

25. What are the checks and balances that relate to the executive branch.

26. What is the purpose of the electoral college? Explain its structure.