

Non Fiction Responses

- Make a list of 5-10 facts that you learned from your book.
- Find 5 non-fiction features such as maps, photographs, diagrams, labels, captions, tables, charts, or graphs and explain how these features help teach you about the topic.
- Create a list of new words found in your book related to your topic and tell what each word means.
- Write a summary of what you are learning in your book.
- Create a web on your topic by writing your topic in the middle of the web. Then, write words, sentences, pictures, or ideas related to your topic around the web.
- Write an acrostic poem about the book using the letters of the book title or topic.
- What is the main idea of the whole text? Use key details to support your main idea.
- What is the author's point of view about your topic? Use details to support your answer.
- What is most likely the reason the author wrote this text? Use details to support your answer.
- What new questions do you have after reading this text?
- Write a 3-question multiple-choice quiz from your text. Circle the correct answer.
- Write a letter to the author of the text. Your letter should include a statement, a connection, and a question.