

Web Evaluation --Form A

Directions: Select the correct answer by clicking on the box in front of the correct answer.

1. You have been asked to write a report about what makes a great speaker. Which source would be most accurate and believable?

- ☐A. "The greatest speeches I have ever given in Congress," recorded by Representative K. Brown.
- ☐B. A DVD entitled "How to Become an Effective Speaker," by the Shopping Channel.
- ☐C. "Our Best Debates of the Year" a book compiled by your middle school language arts class.
- ☐D. An article entitled "Abraham Lincoln and Martin Luther King, America's Greatest Speakers".

2. When gathering information for a research paper on immigration, I need to be certain that I look up current information so that it will be useful. Which of the following would probably contain the most useful information?

- ☐A. current immigration statistics
- ☐B. a news article from 1960
- ☐C. immigration records from 1900
- ☐D. projected immigration statistics

3. When looking up information in the Internet, I need to _____

- ☐A. use the search engine I know best.
- ☐B. use only one search engine.
- ☐C. look at two search engines.
- ☐D. look at several different search engines.

4. If you were writing a paper on chickenpox, which of the following sources would be the most accurate and believable?

- ☐A. An MTV interview with a pop singer explaining when she had the chickenpox.
- ☐B. An article on childhood diseases by John Jones, MD Chief of the US Department of Communicable Diseases.
- ☐C. A blog from a boy who describes his experiences with chickenpox.
- ☐D. An entry in the Dictionary, published in 1986, defining the word "chickenpox".