

Weekly Geography

Week 13 Grade 5

Name _____

1. What is the state that touches 4 of the 5 Great Lakes?

2. The largest island in the world, located near Canada, is called . . .

3. What are the names of the two seas west of the Alaskan coast.

4. What is the capital of Rhode Island?

5. The Sahara Desert is larger than the 48 contiguous United States. On what continent is it found?

6. Which country has the warmest climate year around, Switzerland or Sudan?
Why?

Country _____

Why? _____

Name _____

Practice

t

T

i

I

u

U

in that bucket

under the lights

The bus left Union, Illinois.

Practice Some More

Unlucky Ira! The other students called him that. It was because his usual day was full of bad luck. Today was the same. Ira stubbed his toe and lost his lunch box. Unlucky Ira!