COURSE SYLLABUS: SPANISH III 2016-17

Course Overview and Essential Skills

The level of Spanish III is a full-year course, which continues to the study of World Language- Specifically Spanish and Spanish CULTURE. Listening, speaking, reading and writing will continue to be taught and practiced with emphasis on student performance in both grammar and vocabulary. The third level language course is a full-year course which continues the study of all aspects of language – listening, speaking, reading, and writing. There is increased emphasis on oral expression and on accuracy in spoken and written language. The student will use the language skills he/she acquires to increase cultural understanding through the use of authentic texts in the target language. There is an emphasis on application of previously learned and newly acquired concepts and skills. This level tends to require that students take more of a responsibility and ownership of reviewing material that was learned in previous levels. More reading and writing is included than Spanish II level, with emphasis on the student communication skills
