

Name: _____

Works Cited Worksheet

Part One:

Directions: Read the following Works Cited citations. If it's correct, write C on the line. If not, write N (for not correct).

- _____ 1. Jim Johnson. Angels. Philadelphia: Putnam, 1997.
- _____ 2. "Iraqi Oil." Wright, Richard. Newsweek 19 July 2003: A 3.
- _____ 3. Rogers, Michelle. "Horses Racing in America." Time. 18 Mar. 1989: 46.
- _____ 4. Torborg, Jeff. Personal interview. 9 Dec. 1999.
- _____ 5. "The Rise of the Middle Class." MSN 6 Sep. 2003. 21 May 2004.
<<http://www.slate.com/Economics/9-6-03/Economics.asp>>.

Part Two

Directions: Rewrite the following works in the correct Works Cited Format. (Ten points each.)

- 6. An encyclopedia article called Las Vegas in the 2004 edition of the World Book Encyclopedia on pages 86 and 87, written by Marge Helgenburger.

- 7. A guest speaker named Samantha Williams on May 22, 2004.

- 8. A book called Fantastic Plastic written by Paul Smith, published by New Line Books in London in 2003.

9. A website article called Two Koreas, author unknown, at MSNBC.com. There is no date when it was published online. MSNBC.com is owned by MSNBC. The article was read on May 18, 2004. The URL is www.msnbc.com/world/twokoreas.asp.

10. An encyclopedia article called Rancho Relaxo in the 1999 edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica on pages 489 to 491, author unknown.

11. A book called The Lord of the Flies written by William Golding, published by Perigree Books in New York in 1954.

12. A telephone interview with William Holt on January 3, 2003.

13. The Fox and the Hound (1981) Released: May 2, 2000
Company: Buena Vista Home Entertainment