

WOW Card

The WOW Card gives you access to many helpful and exciting online resources via the Gaston County Public Library - your own library

WithOutWalls!

What is my WOW Card number?

Your WOW Card number is based on your student ID. All cards start with "WOW" followed by the appropriate number of zeros, then your student ID. There should be a total of 14 characters.

For example, a student ID of 123456 would be:

W 0 W 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 3 4 5 6

What can I access with my WOW Card?

Through the Gaston County Public Library, you can access...

- NC Live, for research or homework.
- Freegal, to download and stream music.
- Zinio, to access e-magazines.
- E-books from Freading, Home Grown eBooks, and the NC Digital Library (including NC Kids Digital Library).
- Language Learning with Rocket Languages.

Where can I access these resources?

Visit GastonLibrary.org and click "Online Databases & Links"

For assistance with your WOW Card or any online service provided by the library, please email the library at help@gastonlibrary.org.

The WOW Card is made possible through a partnership between Gaston County Schools and the Gaston County Public Library.

My WOW Card number is:

W O W _ _ _ _ _

WOW Card

The WOW Card gives you access to many helpful and exciting online resources via the Gaston County Public Library - your own library

WithOutWalls!

What is my WOW Card number?

Your WOW Card number is based on your student ID. All cards start with "WOW" followed by the appropriate number of zeros, then your student ID. There should be a total of 14 characters.

For example, a student ID of 123456 would be:

W 0 W 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 3 4 5 6

What can I access with my WOW Card?

Through the Gaston County Public Library, you can access...

- NC Live, for research or homework.
- Freegal, to download and stream music.
- Zinio, to access e-magazines.
- E-books from Freading, Home Grown eBooks, and the NC Digital Library (including NC Kids Digital Library).
- Language Learning with Rocket Languages.

Where can I access these resources?

Visit GastonLibrary.org and click "Online Databases & Links"

For assistance with your WOW Card or any online service provided by the library, please email the library at help@gastonlibrary.org.

The WOW Card is made possible through a partnership between Gaston County Schools and the Gaston County Public Library.

My WOW Card number is:

W O W _ _ _ _ _

WOW Card

The WOW Card gives you access to many helpful and exciting online resources via the Gaston County Public Library - your own library

WithOutWalls!

What is my WOW Card number?

Your WOW Card number is based on your student ID. All cards start with "WOW" followed by the appropriate number of zeros, then your student ID. There should be a total of 14 characters.

For example, a student ID of 123456 would be:

W 0 W 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 3 4 5 6

What can I access with my WOW Card?

Through the Gaston County Public Library, you can access...

- NC Live, for research or homework.
- Freegal, to download and stream music.
- Zinio, to access e-magazines.
- E-books from Freading, Home Grown eBooks, and the NC Digital Library (including NC Kids Digital Library).
- Language Learning with Rocket Languages.

Where can I access these resources?

Visit GastonLibrary.org and click "Online Databases & Links"

For assistance with your WOW Card or any online service provided by the library, please email the library at help@gastonlibrary.org.

The WOW Card is made possible through a partnership between Gaston County Schools and the Gaston County Public Library.

My WOW Card number is:

W O W _ _ _ _ _