

Writing Log – Week of 1/4/20

Name: _____

Directions: Each day of the week you will have a different task for the weekly writing. Carefully read what is expected of you each day.

Week of 1/4/20 Passage:

“We will open the book. Its pages are blank. We are going to put words on them ourselves. The book is called Opportunity and its first chapter is New Year's Day.” —Edith Lovejoy Pierce

MONDAY

Evaluate the following question then answer the three questions below.

Think back on 2020 and all that you have been through, accomplished, or failed at. 2021 is a new year for all. What are your hopes and what are your concerns for the new year?

1. What is this questions asking you to answer?
2. Create a topic sentence for your short response. Restate the question.
3. Brainstorm in the space below. What will you write about? What evidence will you include?

TUESDAY

Write a two-paragraph response to this question. This will be your rough draft.

Assess your writing using the provided Writing Checklist to evaluate your writing. BE HONEST & BE BRUTAL. Write down your score for each category.

TOTAL:

Yes to all parts of this question!

Make the necessary corrections to your essay in a different color text. If online, select a different color font. If handwritten, use a red pen.

What category did you struggle with most this week? In which category did you have lowest score?

FRIDAY

Re-write your final two-paragraph response to this question. Consider all of the corrections you made and your scores in your original assessment. Make sure this is A+ work before submitting for a grade.
