

Peters Township High School Summer Reading List

The following list of books has been compiled from the recommended reading lists of the following organizations: American Library Association (ALA), National Council Teachers of English (NCTE), Educational Research (ERIC), New York Times Bestsellers list, Pulitzer Prize winners, college bound reading lists, as well as other award winning books. They are categorized into four sections, Classics, Young Adult, Contemporary, and Nonfiction. Novels, Plays, Short Stories normally read during the school year are NOT included on the list.

YOUNG ADULT: Appropriate for students in grades 9 & 10

These books are written specifically for teenagers. They tend to be contemporary in nature and focus on “rights of passage” or current issues. Generally, the reading level is simpler than that of a classic or a contemporary material.
