Unit: Expansion Length of Unit 9 weeks

Title/Theme: Expansion
Social Studies Standards	History 9. Actions of early presidential administrations established a strong federal government, provided peaceful transitions of power and repelled a foreign invasion. History 10. The United States added to its territory through treaties and purchases. History 11. Westward expansion contributed to economic and industrial development, debates over sectional issues, war with Mexico and the displacement of American Indians. Economics 25. The Industrial Revolution fundamentally changed the means of production as a result of improvement in technology, use of new power resources, the advent of interchangeable parts and the shift from craftwork to factory work. Economics 26: Governments can impact markets by means of spending, regulations, taxes and trade barriers. Geography 15. Modern and historical maps and other geographic tools are used to analyze how historic events are shaped by geography. Geography 16. The availability of natural resources contributed to the geographic and economic expansion of the United States, sometimes resulting in unintended environmental consequences. Geography 17. The movement of people, products and ideas resulted in new patterns of settlement and land use that influenced the political and economic development of the United States.
