

ALBERT HAS A BIRTHDAY

Albert woke up with a big smile on his face. It was March 2nd. It was his birthday. He had a big day planned. He was going to have a party that afternoon at his house. His cousins and his good friends were coming to his birthday party.

That morning after breakfast, Albert and his dad blew up balloons for the party. They put up a table outside in the back yard and hung the balloons around the yard. It looked great. Albert's mom had hot dogs all ready to cook outside. There was also a big birthday cake for Albert. It was a white cake with blue and yellow stars on it. The cake had "Happy Birthday, Albert" written on it in blue. It had seven candles.

Finally, it was four o'clock. Albert's friends and family came to the party. They played games and ate hot dogs. Then, they sang "Happy Birthday" to Albert. He blew out every one of the candles. Albert loved his gifts. His parents gave him a new blue bike. It had a green seat. It was neat. Albert rode all around the yard. It was a great 7th birthday.
