MY BABYSITTER EATS RAW MEAT

Let me tell you about my babysitter. She is the best babysitter in the world. Her name is Tara. She has big brown eyes and brown hair. She is very smart.

Tara likes to eat raw meat. She drinks water out of a dish on the floor. She sleeps on a blanket in the kitchen.

Tara is only six years old. When she is happy, she wags her tail and licks my face.

Tara is a dog, of course!

Sometimes we go to the park after school. When we cross the street, Tara makes me stop and look left and right. Our favorite thing at the park is the slide. We both love to go down the slide. Tara can climb the ladder. She climbs up, and then slides down. She slides with her mouth open. It looks as if she is smiling.

I think Tara would like the swings too, but dogs can't swing.

Tara is my best friend.
